GOD
is so much more

That Spark of Light

When you're living in the illusion that all you've been taught is real, the truth that comes from seeking is what seems to be surreal.

So push past all the discomfort
if you want to truly be free, for the darkness seeks to keep us enslaved by dominating over you and me.

The darkness seeks to hold on tight,
and never let us go.
It wants us to be dependent,
never realizing it's the foe.

But there's an intuition in each of us crying out "this darkness is wrong!"
If you pause in silence long enough you'll hear the vibrational song.

It echoes throughout creation;
it breathed life into the dust.
Heaven's power of love and mercy is calling each of us.

That spark of light within every soul,
the more we feed it, the more it will grow.
For light will dissipate the dark;
all darkness will be overcome.

Revealing all there truly is.
Love was; Love is; Love is to come.

Shining

The sun shining through casting both shadow and light.
Which will I follow?

Light

Light in the darkness
leading me on a safe path.
I will trust in You.

The Way

Written on our hearts,
a love story,
of a Creator
and His creation—
fragile, fallen and mistakes made, but in time, the Creator knows
His creation will find their way.

For He placed love in their hearts like a compass that points true north.

Though worn and bruised may be their journey love always finds its way home.

Love seeks love, a magnetic pull—selfless and eternal.
The love within always leads back to the One who first loved you.

Listen to your heart,
and you'll hear God say
"life is a journey;
Love is The Way."

Fountain

Oh, fountain of life
come; rain down and cover me,
with Your perfect love.

You

My heart's desire
is to know You; only You can satisfy me.

The Gift

Frolic on the cotton candy clouds;
dance in the torrential storms.

One will inevitably transition into the other,
and back again;
such is the progression of life.

Smiles and tears,
joys and pains,
elation and despair;
the back and forth.

We can only experience
in relation to that which is not.

It is a gift from above.

The full freedom
of experience.

The full freedom
of life.

The full freedom
of God.

So, frolic on the clouds,
and dance in the storms.

It is all for you.

Drenched

In the solitude,
drenched in Your beautiful grace,
I see my true self.

Infinite

Disappearing world.
Lost in the infinite ways.
Only Love remains.

Simplicity

to relish in the magnificence and beauty of the every day; cherishing the mundane as holy patiently being still quieting one's mind
to commune with the Heavens to connect with One and All our union lies with the Divine in moments of simplicity
a state of pure and deep love

One

We are all
One.

No matter our color;
no matter our language;
no matter our religion;
no matter...

We all belong.

We are all created
in the image of God.

We are all part
of humanity.

We are all
One.

Communion

Be still and aware;
communion awaits with God
when I am open.

Satisfaction

True satisfaction
comes only from God,
the Source
of all things.

Who knows
the number of hairs
on your head.

Who calls you
by name.

Who waits patiently
for you to come home.

Welcoming you back
to merciful love
with open arms.

This is where
true satisfaction
will be found.

In the here and now,
you can bring
Heaven to earth
by finding rest
in your Creator.

Your Source.

Reconnect and feel
true satisfaction.

Calling

When I am open

I will hear love's pure calling for God knows my name.

So Much More

God,
You are,
so much more
than what my mind
can comprehend,
and I'm so thankful,
regardless of my limitations,
You love me all the same.

Eternally

With all the questions I have for God, when I finally stand before Him,
I feel my tears will express it all.

He will hear me.

He will hold me.

He will love me.

For I am forever His, and He is forever mine.

Eternally One; eternally home.

what are your thoughts on
GOD

Closing Words

tumble after God
the Creator
of the Universe
as He waits
patiently
for you
with arms
wide open
a loving embrace
welcoming you
to pure love

Angel K Will

is a wanderlust explorer who enjoys expressing herself through the creative works of writing, photography, and design.

Her philosophy for experiencing the most out of life...

to ponder, to reflect, to question to push and pull, to ebb and flow to think outside, inside and around the box to live unlimited, to just be an abstract life beckons me

-akw-

Swim in the ocean
of love,

melt in the arms
of assurance,

and you too
will find

a peace beyond
understanding;

a discovery
that God is... so much more.
